

C3 PAID INTERNSHIPS ARE YOU CURIOUS?

Are you a shapeshifter? A one-(wo)man band?

Do you wear a lot of hats? Is your compass always spinning?

Does your "what you want to be when you grow up" still have at least one "slash" in it?

We don't think there's anything wrong with that.

C3 is a creative agency filled top to bottom with people whose job descriptions are a mouthful: people who do this, that, and a little of everything else, too.

We love interns who can design, illustrate, letter, animate, craft, code, write and more... in any combination.

We're hands-on. We play courageously.

If you do, too, say hi.
